

Maj is marvelous.

She is tough, smart and very hard to kill.

She is also the primary carrier of an alien infection that offers enormous benefits to mankind, including an end to sickness and death.

But these aliens are not as benevolent as they seem.

Trapped in a dimensional prison, the Shadow Makers, who like to call themselves “Light Holders”, threaten not just humanity but the entire galaxy. Should they escape, they will endanger countless life forms that exist around and in between the stars.

Maj and her unlikely friends will be all that stands in the way of the evil and greedy Shadow Makers. God help us all.
